Polaris over Olympus

by Jelka Ovaska

Polaris over Olympus takes us from Greece to Finland, with stop-overs in Provence, Paris, Lisbon and Belgrade, and presents readers with a paradox: the product of the steamy Mediterranean is a deep-frozen man, whereas cold Finland has nursed a hot-blooded woman whose passion has not diminished with age. The love story between 67-year-old Greek entrepreneur and Finnish lady, a 62-year-old divorced professor, fights the taboo that eroticism is only for the young and best to be forgotten later in life.

Format: 14 x 20 cm, 260 pages

The Untouchables

by Feri Lainšček

This novel is a sparkling story about the fate of four generations of Balkan Romany and a story about the banal yet cruel reality of the Romany's life in Europe.

The Untouchables is a brilliant tale vibrating with the nomadic spirit of a man who finds incredible resourcefulness and stubbornness to struggle through the hardships of life.

Following the enormous success of the Rooster's Breakfast movie, a new movie, based on The Untouchables novel is to be released soon.

Format: 12,5 x 18,8 cm, 192 pages

Rights sold: Denmark and Czech Republic

Tito and his Comrades

by Jože Pirjevec

On the basis of numerous sources, including dispatches from ambassadors and reports by Eastern and Western intelligence services, as well as comments by Yugoslav politicians and world and religious leaders, the author succeeds in creating the most comprehensive portrait so far of this charismatic leader of the second half of the 20th century. The book offers numerous newly revealed facts which not only help to explain many of Tito's decisions and actions but also heavily contributed to the disintegration of Yugoslavia in nineties. As such, the book represent the first serious attempt to outline the contemporary history of South-East Europe.

Format: 16 × 24 cm, 712 pages
